In Clerk Robertson's Office.

Yesterday, in Clerk Robertson's office, the following transfer of real estate was recorded:

Deed made January 23, 1899, by H. C. Caldwell and wife to Laura Bishop and husband; consideration, $150; transfers part of lot 5, in division L, of Joseph Caldwell estate.

Three deeds of trust were recorded yesterday.

Won't Marry the Girl.

Yesterday afternoon, Miss Emma J. Behanna, who preferred a paternity charge against George Terrill, both of Echo Point, journeyed to the county jail to marry Terrill, in line with his proposition the previous evening, but Terrill had suddenly changed his mind, refusing to marry her. This act on his part was disappointing. Squire Rogers thereupon held Terrill to the grand jury, the defendant furnishing $350 bond for his appearance.

Reached Their Limit.

The barratry cases reached their limit in a lower court yesterday afternoon, when Squire Greer dismissed the case brought against Squire J. G. Haberland, and the prosecutor, H. E. Bachman, following the decision in the Haberland case, asked that proceedings against John Anderson and George Waite, constables, be dropped, which was done. Squire Greer rendered his judgment in the McCulley case, he holding the defendant for the grand jury. Bond was fixed at $300, which Mr. McCulley furnished.

TWENTY YEARS.

Marshall Carrington Goes to the Penitentiary on

THE HARDEN BURGLARY CHARGE

He was Sentenced Yesterday Afternoon by Judge Hugas After a Jury had Heard Evidence Regarding the Prisoner's Sanity and Found that he was Sane--Five Years of the Sentence is on a Former Conviction.

Marshall Carrington, the young colored man who was recently found guilty on the charge of attempted burglary at the home of Mrs. Harden, on North Main street, will spend the ensuing twenty years in the West Virginia penitentiary at Moundsville, and he will be taken there in a day or two by Sheriff Richards and handed over to Warden Sam Hawk.

Yesterday morning in the criminal court, Judge Hugas instituted an inquiry into Carrington's sanity. This was deemed advisable for the reason that Carrington has been acting strangely since his conviction, and by some it was believed he had become demented. The court desired that there should be no doubt of the man's condition before he was sentenced to the penitentiary. Acting along this line, three physicians, Drs. John L. Dickey, E. L. Armbricht and B. H. Stillyard made an examination of Carrington in the jail. While this examination was in progress, the following jury was sworn in to hear the evidence and determine the prisoner's sanity: R. M. Moore, James Phillips, R. M. Hand, E. Israel, W. H. Giff, John Triebler, C. H. Copp, P. Bonenberger, Jesse Stimmel, P. C. Hell, Leroy Millard, Samuel Nesbitt.

F. C. Reynolds testified; he said Carrington's queer actions were first noticed in the fall the second day after his conviction in the criminal court.

The other witnesses were the three physicians mentioned above, all of whom united in the belief that Carrington was shamming and that in reality he was entirely sane. The jury retired and in a few minutes returned with its verdict, which was that Carrington was sane.

Judge Hugas then proceeded to sentence the young colored man on the Harden attempted burglary conviction. He gave him twenty years' confinement in the state penitentiary at Moundsville; fifteen of this for the crime and five years on the strength of the former conviction in Mercer county, this state, which was proved at the late trial. The verdict meets with the general approval of the community.

Judge Hugas took occasion to commend Attorney Charles J. Schuck for the able manner in which he had conducted the defense in the Carrington trial. Before sentence was pronounced, Mr. Schuck moved for a new trial for Carrington, but this was overruled by the court.

Indictment No. 1, against Carrington, is continued indefinitely on the criminal court docket, but will not likely ever be heard of again.

THE SALE RATIFIED.

North Penn Oil & Gas Stockholders Hold Their Last Meeting.

The last meeting of the stockholders of the North Penn Oil & Gas Company, of this city, was held at the Odd Fellows hall last night, and the principal business was the ratification of the sale of the company's holdings, which was made by Assignee S. G. Smith some time ago. This ends the career of the North Penn, which has been one of alternate storm and calm, success and adversity.

Mrs. McKinley in Oil.

Mrs. McKinley, wife of the President, her sisters and the heirs of the late George D. Saxton, own the oil and mineral rights in 260 acres of land in the vicinity of the Seol oil field. They did not know it until informed by a man who wanted a lease. In looking up an abstract he found that the present owner owns only the surface. James Saxton, father of Mrs. McKinley, when he sold it over thirty years ago, having reserved the mineral and under the surface rights. A contract was made with the Saxton heirs to sink a test well and if oil is found, to operate under royalties to the heirs.

Rig and Tank Burned.

Yesterday, near Seol, the rig and tank of the Jennings Brothers well, on the edge of the field, was destroyed by fire. The loss will foot up several hundred dollars. The origin of the fire was not stated.

..Second Sight..

When you feel that you have tried everything and everyone, consult us. A daily occurrence is the surprise shown by the benefited patients at our office.

Do you have headache? Do your eyes water? Do they smart or burn? Does the print run together when reading? Feel as if some before the eyes? Do things appear double or mixed up? Have a desire to rub the eyes? Twitching? Does the light pain them? For any trouble of your eyes consult us. During this month we devote much time to children's eyes. We make glasses at popular prices (one reason for our popularity)--make a careful examination free of charge. The best proof of our success is the number of recommendations from our old patients.

Get On the Inside.

If you want to see what's going on at a circus you'll naturally GET ON THE INSIDE. You won't stand outside the tent and wonder. If you want to get an office, there's always a ring--get on the inside. If you want to know about what a suit of clothes is made of, get on the inside--turn up the coat lining and look at the back of the goods--look at the linings--look at the finish--look at the stitching. A good piece of goods is often made up into a poor suit of clothes. The suits that we are selling at $10 are elegantly lined, made up and finished. All these suits are self-faced to the armholes. Lots of new suits to look at in the window--but you'd better get on the inside, where you can also get a glimpse of the elegant life size portraits which we are giving away absolutely free. The artistic workmanship is demonstrated in our corner window, where we exhibit some portraits of well known citizens for your inspection.

Clothing For Careful Dressers.

These are exhibition days in our store. Hand-some spring garments are here in a profusion of stylish fabrics. Suits are here that will match in construction and finish the careful work of custom tailors. THERE IS NO ROOM FOR CHEAPLY TAILORED CLOTHING IN THIS STORE. We particularly point to the hand-made collars, hand-made button-holes and square shoulders, all of which cost more in the construction, but pay in the confidence that our clothing wins for us with the satisfied wearers. Handsome Men's Suits, EQUAL TO CUSTOM MADE, are here at $10, $12 and $15.
